SPEAK OUT TENT

Panel and Discussions

11.30AM Welcome

11.45AM In conversation with Professor Ghillar Michael Anderson, an astronomer, activist and knowledge holder, who was central in setting up the Aboriginal Tent Embassy in Canberra in 1972. He is a Senior Law Man, Elder, and leader of the Eualeyai Nation from Goodooa, New South Wales.

12:35PM Protecting Country with Monica Morgan, Ruth Langford, and Pete White facilitated by Cathy Craigie.

2:30PM Yarn with Native Indigenous Enterprise in conversation with Rhoda Roberts.

Indigenous Enterprise is a dynamic dance company founded in 2015, dedicated to celebrating and preserving Indigenous cultures through a blend of powwow dance, contemporary choreography, and powerful storytelling.

3:15PM Land Back: Aboriginal Land Rights in New South Wales, Today and Always. Facilitated by Clare Mchugh. Panellists include Editor Heidi Norman and contributing authors to Land Back.

Book Launch - Aboriginal land rights recognition in 1983 came after nearly 200 years of violent colonial dispossession and the near-complete loss of land. For over 40 years, NSW Aboriginal people have worked to restore their Country and people.
